THE TEACHERS

Of Ohio County are in Annual Session at West Liberty.

VERY SUCCESSFUL INSTITUTE

Is the one Which Began Monday. Ninety-five Teachers are in Attendance and Others Will be Added During the Week-Prof. Lough, of the Fairmont Normal School, is the Principal Instructor.

The Ohio County Teachers Institute met in the Normal School hall at Wes Liberty yesterday morning, being called to order by County Superintendent George S. Biggs. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Garver, pastor of the Presbyterian church, after which the new county superintendent was called on for a speech. He declared was called on for a speech. He deciment that he would like to make a speech but had no subject. "I would like to take "the ladies" for a subject, but experience has proven that the ladies are not subjects, but sovereigns." He closed his remarks by expressing an earnest desire that the institute might work great good to those in attendance.

After the enrollment of ninety-five members, Prof. N. C. Lough, of the Fairmont normal school, the instructor was introduced and in a very happy manner thanked the people for their kind reception and expressed his great delight with West Liberty and its surroundings. He outlined some plans for good institute work. The teachers express themselves as feeling confident of having a good instructor, and one who is thoroughly in earnest.

After a delightful recitation by Miss Minnie Winters, of Sand Hill, Marshall county, the institute took a recess until 1:30 p. m.

At the afternoon session the topic "What Teachers Should Read," was presented. The discussion was opened by Mr. J. T. Maxwell, who thought the first book should be the Bible, and then as many other good books. Mr. George Oldham favored works of fiction. Others advocated the reading of that class of literature that was most helpful to the teacher.

Instructor Lough gave a very interesting address on arithmetic, touching with special emphasis on longitude and time, illustrated by blackboard work. Rev. Garver gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the moral training of school children. Several teachers told of their methods of instructing their pupils to lead better and purer After the singing of "Old Kentucky Home" by the choir the institute ad-journed until 9 o'clock this morning.
